

AH
HA

Long story short... back in 2016 in the thick of a ridiculous election year, I dreamed up the punny character 'Barack Ollama.' Then 'Thomas Girafferson'... then 'Swanald Reagan'... you can probably see where I'm going... Soon, all 45 PreZOOdents were born as an illustrated series, and ultimately a deck of snarky, groan-inducing, and lovable playing cards.

This temporary inspiration/insanity has spiraled out of control just a bit since then. I left my 9-5 job to pursue this much more fun adventure in January of 2019. I want to spread some joy and laughter, and hope that you can be a part of delivering punderful 'ah ha moments' to people who just need a little levity. If you need more laughter in your shop (and who doesn't?), these products will do the trick!

Our Mission... is to celebrate moments of discovery and laughter with beautiful, useful, and clever products that feature art, humor, wordplay, and curiosities.

Let's Collaborate... I REALLY want to hear your ideas! Whether it's a new genre of characters, a new product, or a new style, let's make it happen!

Minimum Orders... are just $100. Once you get started, your customers will keep us busy!

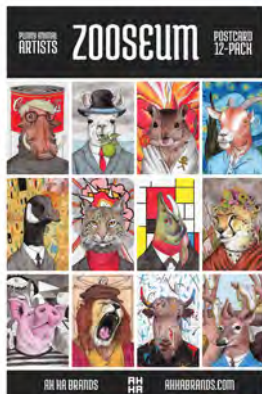

Thank you, let's work together!

WILD IDOLS

WHO DO YOU WANT TO SEE?

The Wild Idols series is an ongoing collection of famous punny animal portraits of people and characters, independent of genre. I get A LOT of requests for specific portraits - anything from scientists to characters from books, and from musicians to war heroes.

Art Prints of each character will be illustrated in the same style as Ruth Badger Ginsburg & Owlbert Einstein (pictured), and available in 5"x7" and 8"x10" sizes.

COMING SOON:

William Shakespearé & Beeyoncé

In this new, but ever-expanding collection, I would love to work with you to create the characters your customers will be the most interested in. Maybe a local political hero? Or the star player of your city's football team? You know your customers best, so let's give them who they want!

LET'S COLLABORATE

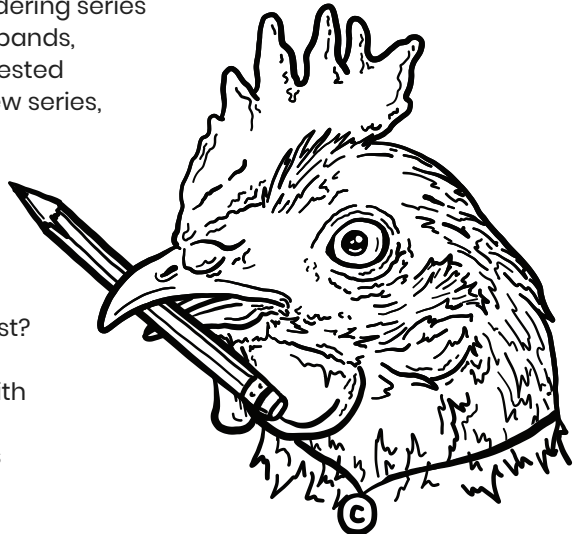

In addition to expanding the new Wild Idol series, I am looking for adventurous, creative people to work with on new products!

Perhaps we could start with a new series of punny animal illustrations? I am currently considering series focusing on authors, musicians / bands, and sports heroes. If you'd be interested in proposing or pre-ordering a new series, let's talk about it!

But why stop there?

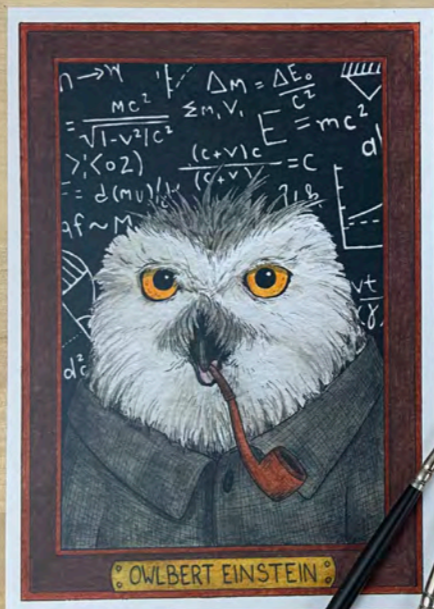

What else would your customers love to see in your store? What types of products actually sell best?

Let's work together to come up with something that will fly off your shelves! (at least farther than this chicken will)
